Sudbrook Park

Baltimore County, MD

1895

Private

This dwelling at 1017 Windsor Road is located in Sudbrook Park in Pikesville in the Third District of Baltimore County. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1973, Sudbrook Park Historic District is significant as a small community designed and planned by Frederick Law Olmstead. It was planned as a summer resort for wealthy Baltimore residents at the turn of the 20th century. Known for his emphasis on nature, Olmstead designed Sudbrook Park with importance on curvilinear streets, large lots, and an abundance of mature trees and vegetation. The houses in Sudbrook Park were designed with several deed restrictions. The structure was required to be sited forty feet back from the street and ten feet from neighboring property lines. The height of each property was to be three stories and the styles allowed were rural and not urban. The house at 1017 Windsor Road was constructed in 1895 as one of the four rental properties owned by Hugh Bond and Eugene Blackford. The property was leased to Charles A. Webb for a minimum term of three years.

This Colonial Revival-style dwelling, built in 1895, is sited on a level grassy lot with a paved driveway amongst foundation plantings and mature trees and shrubs. The house has a four-square form. The wood frame structural system is clad with aluminum siding and supported by a solid random rubble foundation. The off-center entry features a one-leaf one-light wood paneled door with a 2-light transom. A section of the one-story wrap-around porch has been enclosed and now contains 10-by-10-light wood casement windows. The open sections of the porch have wood Tuscan columns and wood balusters. At the corner of the house the porch has an octagonal section with a turned deck. The second-story and hipped dormer contain wood sash windows with 2/2-lights. The dwelling has an aluminum cornice and a hipped roof with asphalt shingles and one interior-side brick chimney.
