Architectural Survey File

This is the architectural survey file for this MIHP record. The survey file is organized reverse-chronological (that is, with the latest material on top). It contains all MIHP inventory forms, National Register nomination forms, determinations of eligibility (DOE) forms, and accompanying documentation such as photographs and maps.

Users should be aware that additional undigitized material about this property may be found in on-site architectural reports, copies of HABS/HAER or other documentation, drawings, and the “vertical files” at the MHT Library in Crownsville. The vertical files may include newspaper clippings, field notes, draft versions of forms and architectural reports, photographs, maps, and drawings. Researchers who need a thorough understanding of this property should plan to visit the MHT Library as part of their research project; look at the MHT web site (mht.maryland.gov) for details about how to make an appointment.

All material is property of the Maryland Historical Trust.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Marydel School is located on the northwest side of Maryland Route 311 in Marydel, Caroline County.

The school is built in a cross shape with a small service addition in the northwest corner of the cross. The structure is frame on a brick foundation and is covered with a composite siding. The main facade (east elevation) has an entrance in the projecting section with a modern one story porch with a gable roof and metal supports and railings. The doorway has sidelights and transom. In the gable of the projection is a pointed arch ventilator. The two wings both have a row of three windows with large 9/9 pane sash. The south gable end has no openings, but the north gable has pointed arch windows. The shed addition is of concrete block and has a brick chimney. The roof is shingle and there are shaped rafter ends on an ornamental plate.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Marydel school was probably built during the first quarter of the twentieth century. Its form is very similar to the Colored School, Denton and other public schools in Caroline County. The structure is the visible reminder of the growth of public education in Caroline County. It also serves as a community hall which is a good adaptive use for such structures.
